What an unusual
time to be alive.
So much is happening in God's kingdom that it's essential to watch the faithfulness of the Word unfold.

As we experience what's happening in the world, it's so important to look at the world through the POWER of the Word to see things from God's miraculous perspective.

I encourage you to read and reread the articles in this magazine and allow God to reveal His peace to you. As you read Richard's article concerning the resurrection of Christ, be expecting the miracle power of God like never before.

Don't miss the article about my newest book, Discover Your True Worth. I sincerely believe this book will reach women in a new way and help them discover how valuable they are to God.

And be sure to read, "Put It On the Cross." It's the newest prophetic dream God has given to me about releasing to Him your hopes, fears, expectations, disappointments, etc. and trusting that what Jesus did on the Cross can meet all our needs.

Planting Seeds and Expecting Miracles

I always sent my seed faith gifts together with my prayer requests to ORM believing for our son to go back to college and finish his degree. Praise God, he is now enrolled in a prestigious university and was given a partial scholarship! We're praying for a full scholarship! Thank you, Richard and Lindsay, for praying for our son and for my whole family. I will keep planting our seeds and expecting miracles and supernatural blessings from God. May God bless you and your ministry.

Have you ever...

BY LINDSAY
ROBERTS

Or have you ever wished you could just blink and change a little or a lot about your life?

Have you ever let someone else's opinion matter more than what the Bible says about God's opinion? If you have considered any part of these questions, then perhaps it's time for something new.

In a portion of Isaiah 53, there is an amazing line that says "behold I will do a new thing" Each December 31st, 11:59 p.m., so many people countdown 10,9,8,7,6,5,4,3,2,1. And for what...for the beginning of a new year, a new start.

It's like a song Richard sings, you can start over again my friend. I have a friend that once told me that in one of her most difficult times, she kept playing that song to hear the words remind her that with God's help, she could start over. God's Word is very clear on second chances, starting over, and finding a path for us to become all that God has called us to be and do all that He is calling us to do.

And as I think of that, I am so excited about my new book, Discover Your True Worth. It's been a work in progress since my father-in-law, Oral, put it in my heart and gave me his thoughts on how important women are to God. I believe Satan has done a remarkable job making women feel unworthy, unloved, unimportant, and a lot of other unscriptural things.

So with that in mind, I wrote Discover Your True Worth praying that after reading it, women could see their potential, calling, and true worth in God's kingdom and in every area of their life.

As I wrote it, I laughed, I cried, and I loved learning from such amazing women in the Bible, as well as in life today. Women of faith who have experienced the love of God; a love so real and so available to those who have trusted Him and believed for His hand to move in their behalf.

My prayer as you read this book is the same as my prayer for you right now, today. I pray for you to EXPLORE the Bible, EXPAND your knowledge of your true worth, and EXPERIENCE the love of God like never before. I pray that you begin to expect a miracle, and receive what God has for you in a fresh and exciting new way.

Father God, I pray for the one who is reading this right now. I pray for the love of God to minister to them starting right now. And I pray for healing in every area they have need, in Jesus Name Amen.

Lindsay's book was written to help you discover who you are in Christ, establish you in your powerful identity in Him, and become the woman God created you to be, a woman of substance, a woman of true worth. This book is for any woman who has ever feared, fallen, risked, failed, or been through any of life's challenges and to help you be all that God has called you to be.

"My father-in-law, Oral Roberts, charged me with sharing my calling and showing women their true value in Christ. I believe this book is the fulfillment of that mandate and I am so excited to share it with you." — Lindsay

MYDC RECIPES

APPLE CRISP

INGREDIENTS

- 1/4 cup walnuts
- 1/4 cup oats (not instant)
- 3/4 cup flour
- 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
- Pinch of nutmeg
- 1/3 cup maple sugar (or sweetener of your choice)
- 4 Tbsp. butter
- Apple pie filling (Your favorite prepared or canned filling.)

DIRECTIONS

Mix first 7 ingredients together in a bowl. Spread half the dry mixture in the baking dish, then spread the apple pie filling over it, and spread the remaining dry mixture over the top. Bake at 400° for 30 to 40 minutes.

Optional toppings: You can add whipped cream or vanilla ice-cream.

BAKED FUDGE

Yes please!

INGREDIENTS:

4 eggs
1 cup sugar
1 c. butter, melted and cooled
1 c. pecans, broken in large pieces
4 heaping Tbsp. cocoa
4 rounded Tbsp. flour
2 tsp. vanilla

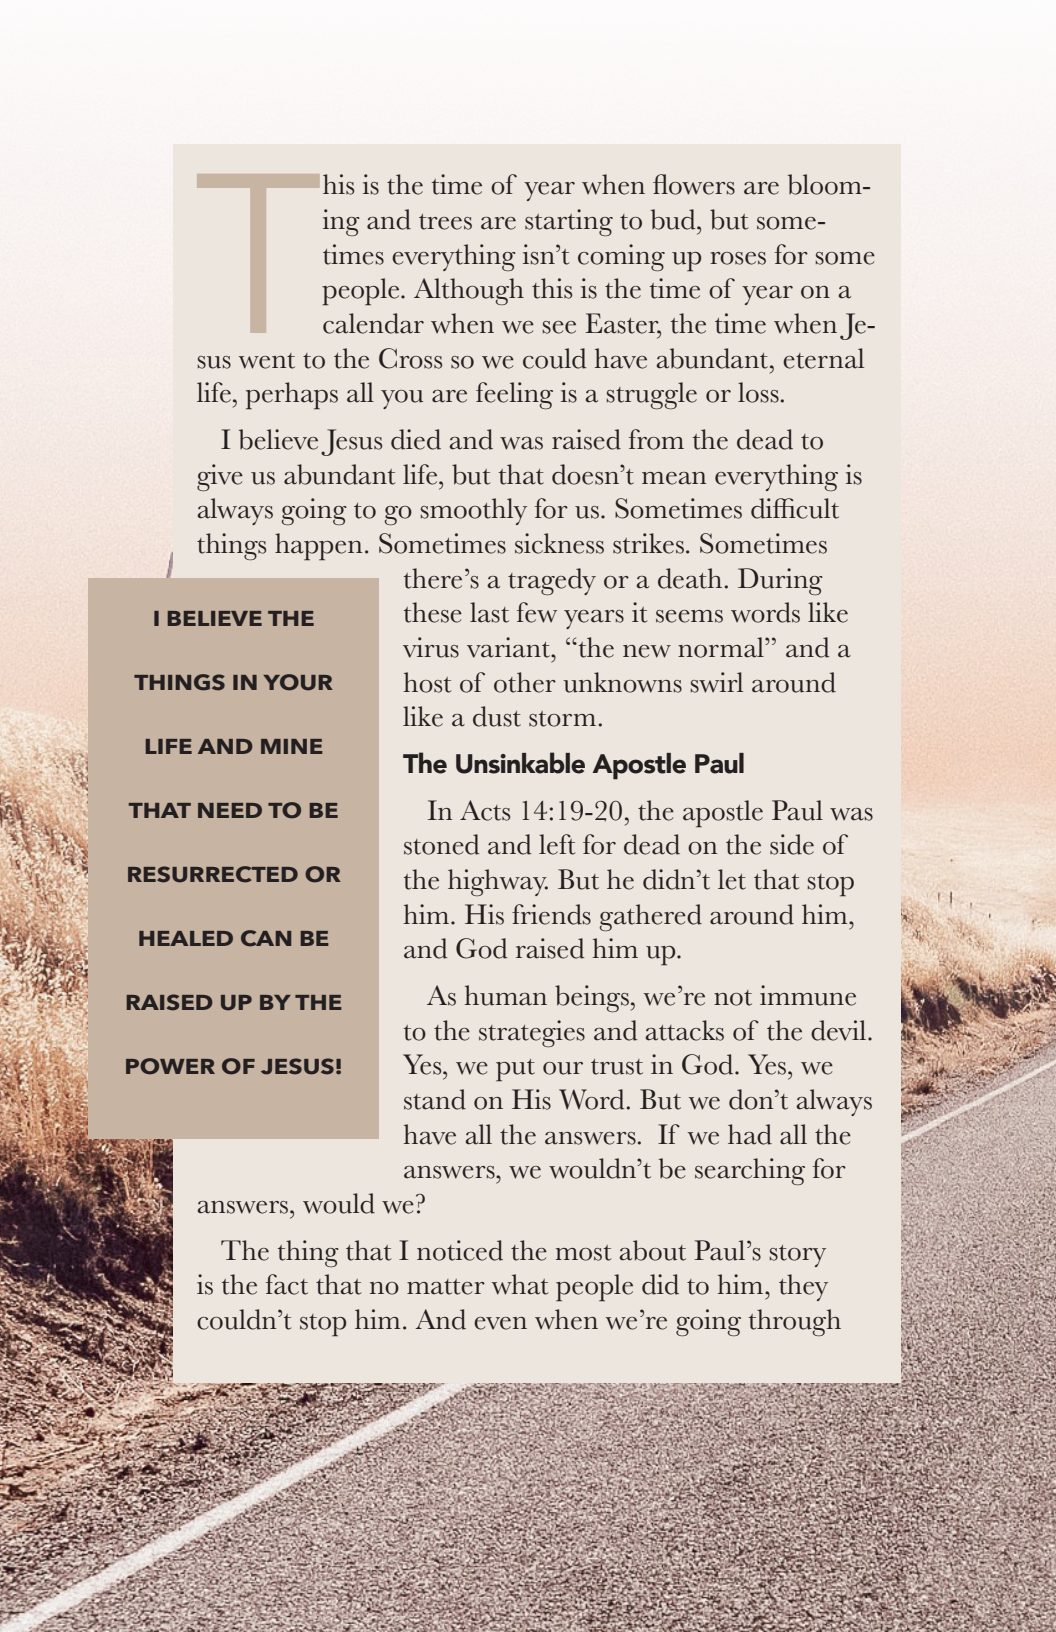

DIRECTIONS

Beat eggs with wooden spoon; add sugar and butter; beat well. Sift cocoa and flour together; add pecans; fold into sugar mixture. Stir in vanilla. Pour into 9x13-inch baking dish. Set dish in pan filled with 1/2" to 1" of hot water.* Bake at 325° for 45 minutes to 1 hour. Fudge will have consistency of firm custard and will be crusty on top. Serves 9 to 12.

(*Be careful of hot water when removing dish.)

From the MYDC Kitchen archives. Recipe from Linda Morrissey

This is the time of year when flowers are blooming and trees are starting to bud, but sometimes everything isn't coming up roses for some people. Although this is the time of year on a calendar when we see Easter, the time when Jesus went to the Cross so we could have abundant, eternal life, perhaps all you are feeling is a struggle or loss.

I believe Jesus died and was raised from the dead to give us abundant life, but that doesn't mean everything is always going to go smoothly for us. Sometimes difficult things happen. Sometimes sickness strikes. Sometimes there's a tragedy or a death. During these last few years it seems words like virus variant, "the new normal" and a host of other unknowns swirl around like a dust storm.

The Unsinkable Apostle Paul

In Acts 14:19-20, the apostle Paul was stoned and left for dead on the side of the highway. But he didn't let that stop him. His friends gathered around him, and God raised him up.

As human beings, we're not immune to the strategies and attacks of the devil. Yes, we put our trust in God. Yes, we stand on His Word. But we don't always have all the answers. If we had all the answers, we wouldn't be searching for answers, would we?

The thing that I noticed the most about Paul's story is the fact that no matter what people did to him, they couldn't stop him. And even when we're going through

I BELIEVE THE THINGS IN YOUR LIFE AND MINE THAT NEED TO BE RESURRECTED OR HEALED CAN BE RAISED UP BY THE POWER OF JESUS!

a difficult time in our lives, I believe it's important for us, as believers, to keep on going.

There's no place in the Bible where it says that it's always going to be easy. Paul said, We fight the good fight of faith (I Timothy 6:12).

You may be thinking, "Richard, how long am I going to have to fight this fight?" Well, I've been believing for some things and I get tired of fighting that battle, too. But I refuse to give up. I refuse to stop believing God.

Paul said in II Timothy 4:7,

I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. I believe we have to fight the good fight of faith until the Lord says to stop.

We're In the Flesh

Why do we have questions that don't seem to have any answers? Because we're human. Because we're in the flesh.

John the Baptist questioned whether Jesus was really the Messiah (Matthew 11:2-3). John is the one who baptized the Lord in the Jordan River and the Holy Spirit descended on Jesus in the form of a dove.

A woman with long dark hair, wearing a dark dress and high heels, is walking away from the viewer down a long, straight asphalt road. The road has a double yellow line down the center and stretches into the distance, curving slightly to the left. The landscape is arid and hilly, with dry, yellowish-brown grass and shrubs. The sky is a pale, hazy blue. The overall mood is contemplative and solitary.

From Loss to Resurrection

BY RICHARD ROBERTS

I BELIEVE WE HAVE TO FIGHT
THE GOOD FIGHT OF FAITH UNTIL WE FINISH OUR RACE.

John heard a voice from heaven say, “This is my beloved Son in whom I am well pleased” (Matthew 3:17). If anybody knew who Jesus was, it was John the Baptist.

But later, John was sitting in a prison cell, about to die for his faith, and suddenly he began to question some of the things he had believed.

Why? Because he was human. He was in the flesh.

Paul said in II Corinthians 4:7, We have this treasure in earthen vessels. He’s talking about the human frailty that every one of us has because we’re human beings. We don’t always have a clear understanding of things. First Corinthians 13:12 says, We see through a glass darkly.

What was the answer John received to his questions? Jesus sent word to him, saying, “Go and tell John...that the blind see and the lame walk;...the deaf hear; and the poor have the gospel preached unto them” (Matthew 11:4-5 NKJV). In other words, He was saying, “Go tell John that I’m the One!”

From Loss to Resurrection!

Yes, as humans, we can suffer loss. So did the apostle Paul. So did John the Baptist. But we have a living Savior, and Easter means resurrection—Jesus was raised from the dead! Therefore, I believe the things in your life and mine that need to be resurrected or healed can be raised up by the power of Jesus!

So, I set my faith in agreement with yours right now, and I pray that the resurrection power of the Lord will come pouring into your life. If you don’t know Jesus personally, I pray that you’ll say, “Yes, Lord, yes,” as you pray this prayer from your heart:

O God, I want to know Jesus as my Lord and Savior. I want to know Him in the power of His resurrection. Please forgive my sins. I open up my heart to the Lord Jesus Christ. Lord Jesus, come into my heart. I receive You as my Savior, my Healer, my Deliverer, and the Lord of my whole life. In Jesus’ Name, amen.

PUT IT on the CROSS

BY LINDSAY ROBERTS

Recently, I went to bed super tired and fell sound asleep. And all of a sudden, I had another prophetic dream with billboards. As unusual as that seems, that's how the Lord speaks to me. I once asked Him why and the Lord said, "It gets your attention." Good point!

On this particular billboard, I saw a game of Pin the Tail on the Donkey. The Lord was saying, "Come play this game with me." Now there's nothing wrong with that game as far as I'm concerned, but I never liked to play it for one reason. I didn't like it when they put a blindfold on and then they spun you around. I probably could have handled the blindfold, but the spinning around made me dizzy and it wasn't really for me.

But again the Lord said, "Come play the game with me." I thought, okay, maybe He's testing my obedience. Maybe it's a test of my faith, maybe it's a test of my comfort zone. And I was struggling with it. The Lord said, "Go get your friends and your family." Then, all these people started appearing. We all had tails with the little pins in it, to pin the tail on the donkey on the billboard. And Jesus was kind of on the side saying, "Come play the game with me." I thought, well, you asked me to, so OK.

And as I looked up to pin the tail on the donkey, the donkey disappeared and now it was a beautiful, spotless lamb. And of course, I thought of all the scriptures about the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world (John 1:29) and the Lamb of God sacrificed for the sins of man and slain from the foundation of the world (Rev.13:8). I was thinking about these scriptures and the Lord said, "I want you to look at your hand again."

As I was looking at my hand with the tail in it — it became a cross...a laminated cross. And in my other hand was a permanent marker. The Lord said, "Look at the cross, think of your needs, your desires, your hopes, your dreams, your disappointments." And I began to think of 2020 with COVID and all the things that it effected such as finances, people losing their jobs, and the whole supply chain issue that we are now facing and so forth.

As a nation in the last couple of years, we've all been going through a lot of emotions. I was thinking that as we are now in the new year of 2022, it's "out with the old and in with the new." But even though the calendar and the year changed, many things we hoped would change, seemingly did not change.

CARE OF IT.”*

Then, in a matter of 2 or 3 seconds, as I looked at the billboard again, instead of the lamb being there, it was Jesus.

It was this beautiful countenance of Jesus with the glory of God all over Him. Jesus stretched out His hands and He said, “Now lay it in My hands. I want you to trust the work of the Cross. With the marker, write down what you are believing God for. Write it down, write the vision down, make it plain. Then put it on the cross, and when you do, give it to Me. You've got to release it, let it go, give it to Me.”

In the dream, the glory of God was there, and revival was breaking out. People were shouting and getting healed. Worship was so powerful that it's hard to explain. And Jesus was saying, “When you give it to Me, I can take care of it.”

Then, I began to realize that God can turn our messes into miracles if we are willing to lay it on the Cross. Put it on the Cross and then let it go. Put it on the Cross and just give it to God.

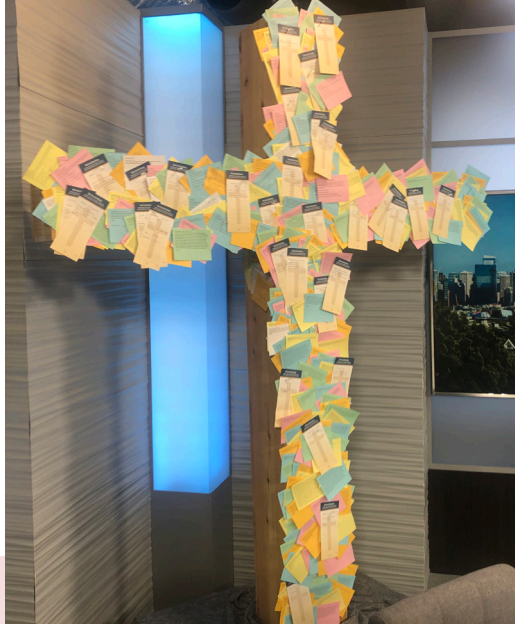

Jesus said on the Cross, “It is finished.” He was saying, “It's done—once and for all.” Jesus paid the ultimate price, shedding His blood as the Perfect and Spotless Sacrifice—for salvation, for healing, for provision—for every need in body, soul (mind, will and emotions) or spirit.

So because of that, Richard and I didn't feel it should just stop with the dream. We decided that we needed a place for our friends and partners to put their special prayer requests. So, we built a huge cross to place in our TV studio so that as you send us your hopes, your dreams and prayer requests. We will literally put them on the cross where we can pray over them every time we pass by.

And I am inviting you to join us. Just go to OralRoberts.com/thecross to send in your prayer requests for us to put on the cross.

Now, I want to remind you what Jesus said on the Cross, “It is finished.” He was saying, “It’s done—once and for all.” Jesus paid the ultimate price for salvation, for healing, for provision—for every need in your body, soul and spirit... For God’s will was for us to be made holy by the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, once for all time... a single sacrifice for sins. For by that one offering He forever made perfect those who are being made holy. (See Hebrews 10:1-18 NLT).

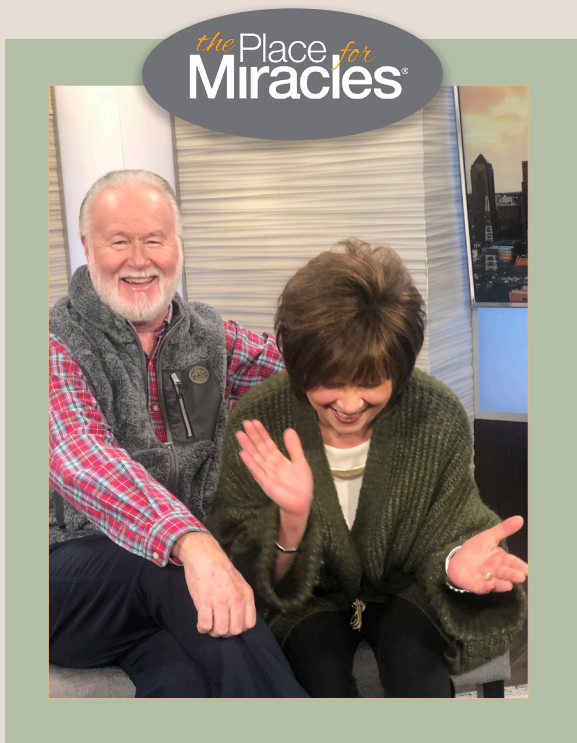

“Put it on the Cross”

You can send your prayer requests to OralRoberts.com/thecross for Richard and Lindsay to pray over.

I encourage you today, whatever YOUR need is, do as the Lord showed me in the dream... put it on the Cross. Surrender everything into Jesus’ capable hands, release your faith and believe that His saving, healing and delivering power is sufficient to meet those needs in your life. And I pray for you right now...whatever you are facing, I’m asking for God to move in your behalf in every area of your life in Jesus’ Name. Amen and amen.
